

My local KLOVE radio station is very important to our community. I am a local school teacher and we listen to the station at school and I don't have to worry about anything offensive coming out of the radio. My students have become accustomed to the station and realize when it is not on. These students do not get many positives other than here at school so KLOVE is a great influence on their lives. We here need KLOVE.